Students' Union

What an amazing year it has been! Student activities have been more phenomenal than ever! Your Students' Union Executive has planned many events including Welcome BBQ, Dodgeball, Aloha Ainlay, Bring Your Own Banana, Junior High Leadership Conference, A Walk Around the World, staff appreciations, pep rallies and so many other fun events. We have worked hard to bring you the best, and only the best! "Just Connect" has been this year's Students' Unions' motto and we feel we have reached out to more students in the school than ever before. Thanks, Titans, for participating and supporting your Students' Union!

Looking back on my years at Ainlay, I know I have made an impact on the school, just as the staff and my fellow students have made on me. I cannot begin to express what an honour it has been to serve as your Students' Union President. I wish we could all continue to be a part of the same school community, full of enthusiasm and priceless memories, but it is time for those of us in Grade 12 to begin the next chapter of our lives. The legacy we leave is the Grade 10 and Grade 11 students who will continue to support the Titan community and live out "In Omnibus Excelsior." It has been a long journey and I thank you all for the memories and opportunity to serve you.

Principal's Message

As we look back on the 2006-07 school year, we should reflect on our Students' Union theme of "Titans Just Connect." Throughout the year, whether it be activities such as Aloha Ainlay, Touch of Class, or Culture Fest, to name but a few, we have been brought together to connect in positive, enriching experiences. These experiences will be part of the memories you have of Harry Ainlay and your high school years.

As you reflect on this past year, you can do so with great pride in the collective efforts of all Titans. Harry Ainlay is, and will continue to be, a vibrant, energetic and exciting place, one that lives up to its motto "In omnibus excelsior – in all things excellence." Whether it is through the arts, academics, athletics, or career and technology studies, your life and the life of this school are intimately entwined. This connection will be long lasting and you are now part of a family of Titans, past, present, and future. It is this connection and commitment that ensures the traditions at Harry Ainlay continue.

The following pages contain memories, your memories, which will be with you for your lifetime. In coming years, you will look back upon these pages and will recall the friends, memories, struggles and conquests, laughter and tears. Look back upon these with the knowledge that these were the formative years of your life, the ones that will ultimately be part of the successful paths you will take.

All that has happened at Harry Ainlay will leave you poised and prepared for the next stage of your life. Regardless of your next steps, the next grade, work or post-secondary studies, do so with the same determination and passion that all of you have so aptly demonstrated. In all things, excellence.

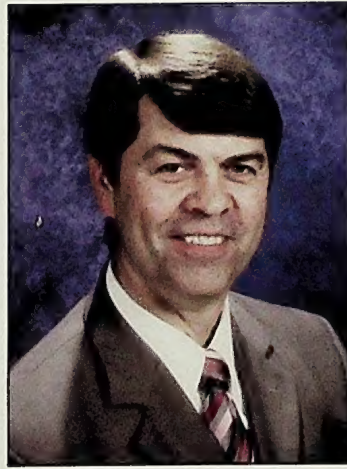

Sincerely,

Mark Liguori, Principal

Staff Candids

Teaching is a challenging profession with long hours, piles of marking and endless preparation. The workload is balanced with the rewards of connecting with students, sharing knowledge and preparing students to be the future generation of citizens and leaders. To do their job effectively teachers rely on the school's administrators to guide the school on it's educational journey. Ainlay's support staff takes care of numerous details from answering the phones to setting-up for chemistry labs. At the end of the day, when nearly everyone has left, our custodians, put the sparkle and shine back in the building. A special thank-you to all of our dedicated staff.

Retiring Staff

Mr. F. Burgess

Whew! Twenty-five years! Teaching is the hardest job in the world, and I've survived through the efforts of my colleagues—with their kindness, wit, knowledge of interesting stuff, and all kinds of generosity—and from contact with students who showed the same qualities. When the job might have been unbearable, they, the colleagues and students, made it bearable; when it might have been only bearable, they made it great honking gobs of fun and satisfaction. OK, I'm outta here.

Ms. C. Green

I started working with EPSB in 1990, first at J. Percy Page, then over to Bonnie Doon. In 1995 I came to Harry Ainlay and found it to be a great place to work as each day held unique new challenges. I especially enjoyed the students who have been a pleasure to assist. Thanks to all the wonderful staff members I have worked with. Goodbye to all Titans.

Ms. A. Hamilton

In every one of my twenty years of teaching English here, I have been impressed by the depth of students' thinking, delighted by their skill with words, and touched by their good will towards their teachers and peers. We are all fortunate to have had this wonderful place in our lives.

Ms. J. Horwood

Although I have enjoyed my whole teaching career - from teaching Art to the boys at Brother Rice H.S. in St. John's, Nfld.; to teaching Art at Mt. Douglas H.S. in Victoria, B.C.; to teaching grades 3-5 at LaPerle Elementary, to Jasper Place H.S. and Stratford H.S. in Edmonton, - the best, most fun, exciting and satisfying has been at this fabulous school, Harry Ainlay. The students have been superb and my teacher colleagues are the very best!

Mr. L. Johnson

"La vie est belle!" Working with students taught me that life is a process, we are free, we are the absolute creators of our experience. The more happiness and laughter there was in class, the more the students produced. Love, Peace, and Harmony to All.

Gerald Mason

As Cafeteria Manager I was able to interact every day with many students and staff at Harry Ainlay. I have been greatly enriched by this experience and know that the enthusiasm and potential of our young people will create a much better future for all.

Ms. S. Mawson

Ms. Mawson taught with Edmonton Public schools for 32 years. She worked at Rosslyn Jr. High, J. Percy Page and the last 6 years at Ainlay teaching IB History and Social Studies. She is currently working in central office on the new Social Studies Curriculum. To quote one of her recent students, "Ms. Mawson is an awesome teacher."

Lepa Ribich

I worked for 26 years as a science lab technician preparing all the items necessary for the students to conduct their experiments. Now that I am retired I enjoy gardening, bee keeping and traveling. Thanks to everyone for so many enjoyable experiences over the years.

Pat Roles

I couldn't think of a better career than teaching math at Harry Ainlay for 38 years. Interacting with the students in class and also through coaching (badminton, hockey, football and swimming) was a highlight. The students and staff have created an amazing environment to enhance a stimulating, passionate and caring profession. My favorite comment from the students: "Mr. Roles you seem to really enjoy teaching!"

Monika Stoten

I have spent 27 years teaching students of all ages including elementary school and adults. It has been a rewarding and challenging career. My six years at Harry Ainlay teaching mathematics were exciting and fun. I have enjoyed the energy that high school students bring to our school.

Ms. J. Theberge

I have had the pleasure of teaching and working with students for the past 24 years. I have taught at Rosslyn Jr. High, Parkdale Elementary, Aldergrove Elementary, and D.S. MacKenzie Jr. High. The last 6 years I have been a teacher/counselor at Ainlay. I will cherish the memories of all those that I have worked with over the years. Cheers, and may all of your career choices be as rewarding and self-fulfilling as mine have been.

International Baccalaureate

The International Baccalaureate program at Harry Ainlay is one of the largest and most successful IB programs in Canada with over 690 pre-IB and IB students. IB is a program that challenges highly motivated students to develop critical thinking skills that will help prepare them for academic studies at University. Students who complete IB courses can earn advanced University credit and placement for the work that they have done at high school. Students value the dynamic classroom environment, individual instruction, challenging curriculum, dedicated teachers, and most of all, the opportunity to develop time-management, self-confidence, and leadership skills. Some of our IB students choose to earn the full IB Diploma by completing six rigorous courses, in addition to a 4000 word extended essay, completion of a Theory of Knowledge course, and at least 150 CAS (Community, Action, Service) hours in grade 11 and 12. This helps create students that are well rounded and who can engage themselves in the world beyond the textbook. IB students are service-minded students that often take up important causes like our school's anti-landmines initiative, which raised money to help clear landmines and help the victims of landmines. High academic achievement, along with service to the community, has helped many of our IB students to earn scholarships for post-secondary study. Since our first IB class graduated in 1984, 801 Harry Ainlay students have graduated with the full IB diploma and 72 more students are attempting to join their ranks this year. In addition, this year 130 partial IB students will write IB certificates in at least one of our IB courses.

International Languages

Harry Ainlay's International Languages Department gives students an opportunity to learn French, German, Spanish or Japanese. Ainlay also provides a French Immersion program which allows students to take classes in French.

CTS At Ainlay

Career and Technology Studies emphasize learning through a hands on, practical approach. All of the courses are oriented around a particular career field and are designed to give students an insight into these specific areas of work. The CTS programs offered this year were: mechanics, communication technology, construction technology, cosmetology, design studies, fabrication metals, fashion studies, and computer programming. CTS courses combine a theoretical approach which is taught in classes, and the application of that theory. In CTS courses students create such things as metal sculptures, furniture, dresses, T-shirts, cakes, and engine overhauls, to name a few. Some of these projects are put on display around the school. Through CTS courses, students are able to tangibly see how their attained skills have shaped their final projects into something that they can be proud of. CTS courses give all students a chance to either pursue a career option or to dabble in different areas just for fun. It is truly a creative way of learning and acquiring new skills.

Art Program

Students work on a variety of challenging projects in drawing, painting and sculpting to encourage their creative potential. A strong emphasis is placed upon experimentation with various media and materials.

Drama Program

Drama at Ainlay is a dynamic course that offers students who love to act, sing, dance or direct the opportunity to express and explore their creativity. The musical "A Christmas Carol" was a hit with seven sold out houses and standing ovations every night! The one-act festival showcased the directing talents of the drama 30 students and their casts of multi-talented actors.

Music Program

This year featured exciting performances for Ainlay's Music Department. The year began with a performance by the Symphonic Band in October in front of the Legislative Buildings; they were part of a concert celebrating the Alberta Band Association's 50th Anniversary. Later in October, 175 students headed to Camp Nakamun for the annual Music Retreat. Friendships were made and musicians were prepared for the first concerts of the year. Also in October, five students from Ainlay's Music Program became members of the Provincial High School Honor Band. The band rehearsed for four days and performed in the final concert at the Alberta Band Conference in Calgary on October 21st. The Symphonic Band, Concert Band and Concert Choir performed in the school theatre on November 21st and the Jazz Ensembles held their season debut on November 29th. In February, the jazz groups provided music for our 26th annual Big Band Bash. This event was once again sold out. In March the Concert, Symphonic, and "A" Stage Bands played in the Alberta International Band Festival. Adjudicators were impressed with the bands, and students gained valuable information at clinic sessions. The Symphonic and "A" Stage Bands were both named "Most Outstanding High School Band" in the festival for their respective categories. In addition to our annual March school concerts, many music students were involved in the EPS Night of Music on March 7th at the Jubilee Auditorium. Ainlay musicians were a big part of both the Senior High Honor Choir and Band. Open House later provided an excellent opportunity to showcase Ainlay's Jazz groups. In mid-April, all Ainlay music ensembles participated in a four-day tour to the Canadian Rocky Mountain Music Festival in Banff, Alberta. The groups had outstanding performances and attended great master classes and concerts. The final concerts of the year were the Winds at the Winspear concert on May 30th, and the final jazz performances at the school on June 5th. It was a great year! Many thanks to all of the students for their passion for music and commitment to the music program at Ainlay. Also, a big thank-you to the parents who volunteered in so many capacities throughout the year.

Leadership

This year's leadership program has been tons of fun. We've chased turkeys, found our happy salmon partners and had the time of our lives 20 feet in the air. Some of the highlights from this year were Fort Edmonton Park, Camp Yo-WoChAs and Walk Around the World; we were even lucky enough to have an awesome guest speaker. Good luck to all of our graduating students and we hope to see both old and new faces in Leadership next year!

Link Crew

On August 31, 2006, over 700 new grade 10 Titans were welcomed to Harry Ainlay for the 2006-2007 school year. Link Crew leaders assisted grade 10s in a smooth transition to high school. The Link Crew Orientation started with a high energy assembly complete with multimedia presentations and continued with a school tour, registration and fun-filled activities. This year's executive did an outstanding job as did our dedicated Link Crew Leaders. We could not have done this without our A-team, who worked behind the scenes, our dream team who maximized school spirit and our teacher advisors: Ms. Boyle, Mr. Heidt, Mrs. Hudec, and Mr. Luchkow. Overall, the entire event was a huge success.

The Breaking Borders Club is a student group aimed at promoting an understanding of religious, ethnic and cultural groups in the school and in the community. As a club, we seek to understand all individuals in their unique diversity. Furthermore, with a strong united group we can efficiently hold many fundraisers and letter-writing campaigns for the less fortunate members of other societies. Consequently, the students of Harry Ainlay will be able to understand how a society can be tremendously enriched with education and understanding. We hope to carry the torch of diversity and acceptance, and lead the way for a more broad-minded society. This vision of Breaking Borders may look unattainable, but the "impossible" is a mere inconvenience. For more information please visit us online at: www.BreakingBordersClub.org

Titans International Organization

Titans International (TI) consists of fifteen executives and twenty volunteers devoted to assist international students feel more welcome at Harry Ainlay. Our goal this year is to erase the "international" tag off our school's 200 international or ESL students to just "Titans"! This symbolizes the integration of these newcomers into the general student body, as well as diminishment of ethnic barriers. We organize fabulous monthly events like lunch parties, BBQs, pumpkin carving contests, bowling, water park visits, etc. We also offer Conversation Partners and Peer Tutoring for students to engage in interesting discussions or seek homework help. Titans International feels very privileged to hear positive feedbacks on the success of the initiatives. Titans International - where Titans meet the world!

Presidents: Shauna Yang & Sophia Zhang
 Executives: Kevin Leung, Hao Guo, Ri Song, Jessica Liu, Vickie Wang, Tabitha Lin, Mahvash Fatmi, Lily Wong, Ivy Chen, Michelle Liu, Maggie Wang, Tiffany Wang, Kino Zhao.

The first campaign of Amnesty International, social justice club, was to support "the Right to Play." This international organization, spearheaded by Olympic athletes, promotes leadership, self-confidence, conflict resolution and fair play through sport. They work to promote health education and collaborative play.

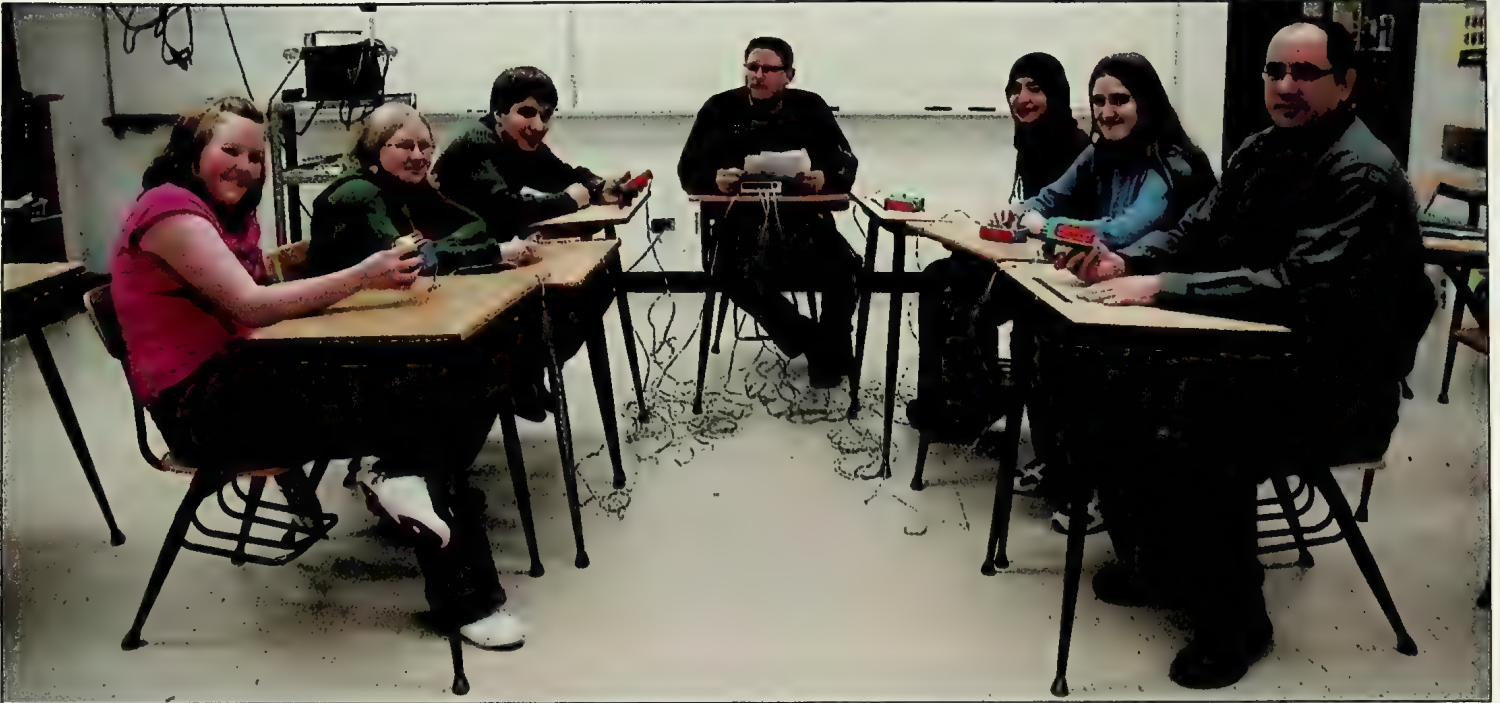

"Play Day" in the rotunda October 19th was so much fun! We collected donations, skipped, danced, and hoola-hooped our way into childhood bliss. Thank-you to those who donated to the cause and planned the event.

School Reach Club

The Harry Ainlay School Reach team competed at the national level last year. The team faced fierce competition from many different provincial champions. In the end, the team came in third. This year, with only two returning players, the team faces an interesting challenge to repeat as Provincial Champs and return to nationals in May.

Speech and Debate Club

This year, Harry Ainlay's speech and debate club was well represented by articulate and knowledgeable members. These members showed off their skills at the Lois Hole, Churchill, and Gandhi Tournaments. We hope to have an even better turnout next year.

Thanks to Ms. Carson, Mr. Holt, and all members for all of their hard work!

Titans' Business Association

The Titans Business Association aims to introduce Harry Ainlay students to the world of finance. It is an organization where current financial leaders and institutions create opportunities to familiarize students with business basics.

The Titans Business Association hosts monthly seminars which involve professionals from financial institutions such as TD Canada Trust and CIBC, who come to the school to explain topics like the stock market system and small businesses. We also register members in out-of-school programs like the Junior Achievement Company Program. It makes us glow with pride that we have helped many take their first step into the world of finance.

Presidents: Shauna Yang and Sophia Zhang

Titanic Newspaper

Within the concrete confines of Harry Ainlay dwells a flourishing community of writers and artists waiting to be snatched by major corporations for commercial gain. But before academia and the corporate world get them, THE TITANIC offers an outlet for their hard literary work. Occasionally, they even try to report on events within the school. Each issue is brimming with articles and editorials, as well as works of fiction and works of art. Comics, reviews, announcements, and advertisements were all written by students, though aided by "Deckhand Colp." Creative expression, journalistic integrity and the occasional slice of pizza is what we strive for.

Hollywood History Movie Club

The Hollywood History Movie Club meets to watch and discuss Hollywood films. The films, made in both past and present day, concern events which occurred during various points in history. Interesting debates take place after the movie is finished concerning topics of controversial importance. The Hollywood History Club is a fun and educational way to learn about how people lived and worked in the past to make the world we live in today. History is something we can use as a tool to understand why we live the way we do today.

Games Club

Ms. Pombert's room 170 has been buzzing at lunch hours with a small army of game players. This collection of students play games such as chess, risk, go and a variety of video games. A great way to enjoy lunch hours.

Anime Club

Welcome to the world of Anime! The Harry Ainlay Anime Club is a club that promotes the watching and discussion of anime in its purest form: in the original language so that we can get the most out of the experience. This year's club is more fun than ever as it is under new management. This year we showed a variety of different genres, breaking through with anime that blew minds. Also, this year the first ever Anime Festival will be held at Harry Ainlay. We hope this tradition will be carried on through future generations. Jya ne!

Comic Club

The Harry Ainlay Comics Club is a new club this year. We meet Mondays and Thursdays at lunch to discuss and read comics, watching the occasional comic-book-related movie. As a new club, the turnout is often very low, but that doesn't stop President Linh Lu, Vice President Sandy Brophy and Staff Advisor Mr. Colp from leading spirited discussions on the latest developments in comics. We've spent the year trying to find the best way to run the club, and hopefully managed to attract more members, ensuring that the club lasts beyond the graduation of the two leaders.

Book Club

The Book Club is an attempt to develop and celebrate a culture of readers within our school community. While there are periodic times set for discussions and occasional events like Literary Café meetings which are associated with our chosen books, the most important thing is that students know they can read a book and that somewhere in the school are other people experiencing the same vicarious thrills and chills. Book club had a strong year and will hopefully grow and develop to become an integral part of our school culture. This year we say goodbye to graduating founding members Alyse Ediger, Rajan Mistry, Christine Tays and Jantina Toxopeus, but we look forward to a strong group of returning members and a new flock of members from all grade levels.

Crystal Growers Club

This year, crystals sent in by the two Ainlay teams placed first in provincial level of competition. Congratulations to teacher advisor, Mrs. Pombert, grade 11 team (Igor Markovic, Christopher Lee and Robert Andrais) and grade 12 team (Janet Goddard).

Photo Club is about taking and sharing photos without the pressure of needing to be a professional photographer. All you need to do to be in our club is to love photography. We take pictures that relate to different themes such as nature, household items, holidays and anything that catches our eye which we feel will make a great photo.

Science Olympics

This year, Ainlay had two Science Olympics teams. The teams had a great time and enjoyed many memorable experiences. Challenges this year included building a Rube Goldberg device and a robot that could pick up and transport pingpong balls. Mystery events included dissecting owl pellets and building structures out of them, performing a chemistry dilution lab and a physics circuitry lab. Science Olympics was a great experience, and we hope to see even more team members next year. Thanks to our awesome coach, Mr. Oswald!

Aventis

In our experimental project on ethanol production, we hoped to determine which grains (corn, triticale or wheat) would yield the most ethanol. The ethanol produced from these grains can be used to fuel environmentally friendly vehicles. We also experimented with commercial enzymes and determined which enzyme treatment was the most efficient for the process of removing ethanol from grain. Global warming is currently a large-scale issue and gasoline usage is destroying the ozone layer. Gasoline is not a renewable resource whereas ethanol is a recyclable fuel source. Photosynthesizing crops can recycle gases emitted by ethanol fuels; crops can intake a certain percent of the ethanol fuels released, making it an environmentally friendly source. Using fermenters and cookers, to mash the grain, we can distill ethanol. Through our findings, we anticipate we will discover the grain with the best traits for ethanol production. # Dance

Dance club is an opportunity for students to express themselves through movement. Hip-hop, krumping, locking, popping, and breaking are all different styles that we have experienced. This year, we had a total of 80 club members. We hired teachers to come weekly to Ainlay to teach us different skills for an hour after school. These dance workshops created opportunities for students to have fun, learn different dance moves, and learn how to perform on stage. At the end of the year, our dance club held a performance for the community. Dance club has been a great experience and we hope our dance students will continue to perform, and pass their dancing knowledge on to others.

Doctors Without Borders

Doctors without Borders is a club dedicated to raising money for the real Doctors without Borders or MSF. Our goal is to support MSF in their campaigns to provide medical aid to countries that have been struck by war, epidemics or disease. Club members meet one to two times a week to discuss and share ideas and plan out campaigns. Everyone in the club is able to showcase their creative skills and make new friends.

Encounters With Canada

For 25 years, Encounters with Canada has brought together high school students from across Canada for one week at the Terry Fox Youth Centre in Ottawa. There students learn more about Canadian Institutions and explore careers related to one of eleven sub-themes (including Sports and Fitness, Journalism and Communications and Medicine and Health). Students gain hands-on experience through participation in group discussions, simulations, multimedia presentations and workshops. Congratulations to Clarissa Atienza, Keith Baldoz, Lindsey Dreger, Ellen Duncan, Ashelyn Fung, Amy Heidebrecht, Andrea Hill, Safeer Jiwa, Arushi Jyoti, Kasmira Pawa, Elaine Rippon, Wajeeha Siddiqui, Karla Telidetzki, Heather Whyte and Jennifer Yau, who represented Ainlay at various Encounters sub-themes throughout the year.

Wellness Centre

The Ainlay Wellness Centre, powered by Kwantum Inc., has seen tremendous growth this year in membership and usage. With over 600 members, the centre is a constant hub of activity where students and staff can escape from the daily grind of the classroom and academics. The centre provides a positive, welcoming environment for all members, while playing a major role in wellness education amongst students. The Wellness Manager strives to provide excellence in educational resources, technical feedback and training techniques.

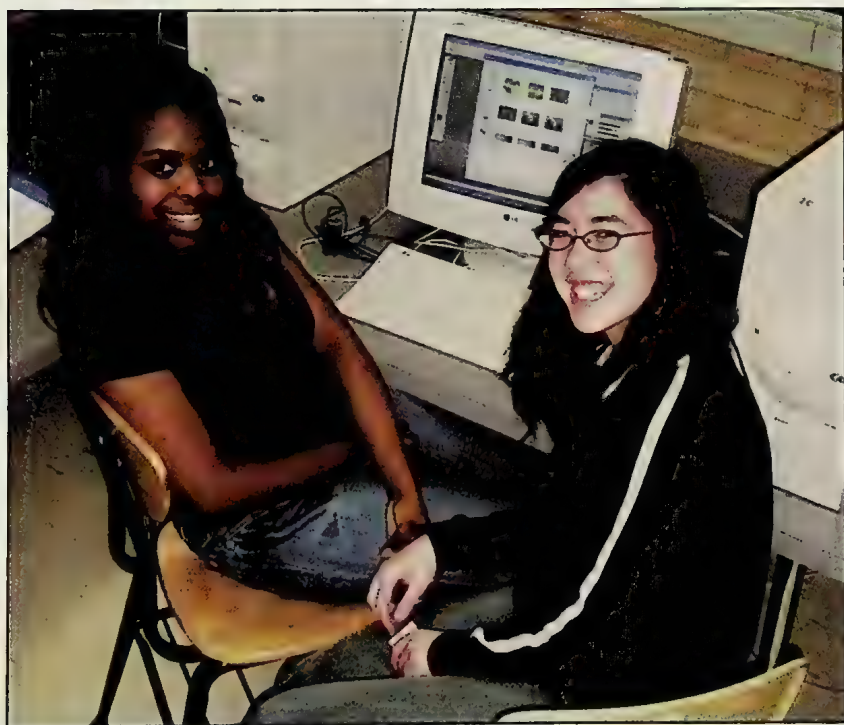

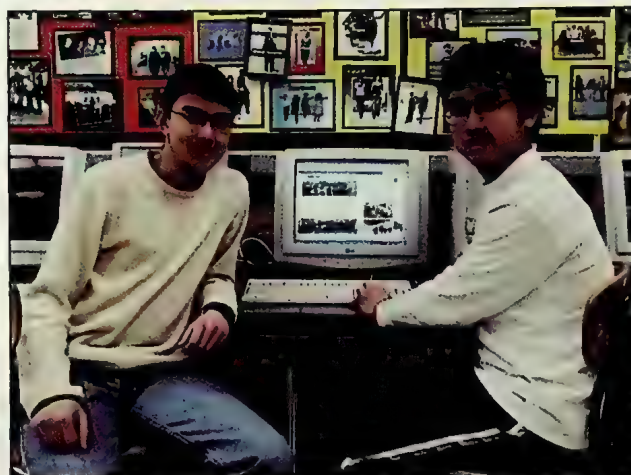

By learning the fundamentals of a healthy lifestyle and engaging in activities with your peers, you build the foundation for a successful and healthy future.

Yearbook

Congratulations to the creators of Ainlay's 41st Titan Tradition Yearbook! This years' yearbookers spent many lunch hours, weekends and after schools photographing school events, editing write ups and creating the pages which will be enjoyed by students for years to come. Thanks to all members for their creativity and hours of dedication to producing this year's book.

Environmental Titan Green

Titan Green, Ainlay's environment club, aims to deal with a variety of issues encompassing everything from global warming to animal rights. This year we adopted a killer whale, staged a cleanup of the school grounds and organized an Earth Day fundraiser. In addition, TG participated in the Capital City Litter Reduction Challenge, an effort to raise awareness of the litter problem and to take action to clean up our school and community. Thanks to Ms. Kabat, Mr. Hignell, and all the club members for their time, enthusiasm, and dedication.

Citadel Theatre

This year Ainlay offered students two golden opportunities to experience theatre. Students enjoyed the Citadel Students Club and could participate in the Studio Theatre's High School Discovery Club, a new program designed to expose students to rising performers, drama faculty members, and facilities at the Timm's Center. Both evening programs were highly successful, and students were appreciative of the engaging work presented. Congratulations to the Citadel and Studio Theatre!

Theatre Sports

Improv captain Jessie McPhee and his team consisting of Joleen Ballendine, Tim Mikula, Ben Terlesky, Byron Martin and Geran Koornhof received a GOLD medal in the city high school improvisation tournament the NOSEBOWL. They also received the GOLD medal in The Canadian Improv Games and represented Alberta in the national competition held in Ottawa. In addition, Joleen Ballendine won Most Valuable Improvisor.

Character Education

This year the Character Education group sponsored a contest for a new logo for this group. Students sought input from all Ainlay students that started the process of updating the way we look at our six character virtues. New displays are in the works as well as a fresh new look at Character Education in the 21st century.

Harry Ainlay runs a golf program for both girls and boys. Teams were selected in September on a very nasty, rainy day at River Ridge. The girls became zone champions at the city zone playoffs, allowing them to compete at the provincial tournament in Coaldale. As a team, the girls placed 4th with Seo Jin placing 7th overall. The boys played in toques and mittens on a cool fall day. Graeme achieved the best score of the day (86) but the boys were disappointed they were unable match the success of the Ainlay women's team. Despite discouraging weather, the teams are looking forward to attending the spring tournament in May, where both teams combine. Ainlay hopes to capture the trophy won twice by Ainlay in the last four years.

Senior Football

Congratulations to the senior football team on their season this year. They had an extremely young team which grew stronger as the year progressed. Once the mid-point of the season was reached, they were a force to be reckoned with. The season ended with 4 wins in a row against strong Edmonton Public League teams. They completed the year with a heart-breaking 7 point loss to the eventual city champion, Ross Sheppard, in a game that could have gone either way. This team had heart and character and made Harry Ainlay proud.

Junior Football

With new coaching staff and many players having never played organized football before, there was an air of uncertainty surrounding the Junior Football Team. The season began with two losses but the team managed to advance to playoffs. The semi-final was a hard fought game but we pulled a thrilling 11-10 upset to advance to the finals. Although we came up just short, there were many positives that arose from that game and the season. Our improvements were enormous and the experience we gained will certainly help us in years to come.

In early September, the Titans had a strong start with a first place finish at the U of A tournament. They also won a silver medal at Trinity Western as well as bronze medals at TVT and at the Sir Winston Churchill Classic. The team finished second overall in premier league play after a tough five set battle in the final. The team won 35 games throughout the season. The senior women traveled to Red Deer for provincials and played some great volleyball! They ended up 2nd place in their pool, and went on to defeat the Bev Facey Falcons in quarter finals. They advanced to meet the defending champs, Lindsey Thurber. The girls played well but lost and were sent to the 3rd place game against the Western Canada Redmen. The end result was a fourth place finish. The girls had an excellent season and should be very proud of their efforts. Congratulations to all the players for their hard work and dedication that contributed to such an outstanding season. Well done Titans!!!

Led by all-star setter Riley Tansem and middle hitter Brandyn Powelske, the team won a bronze medal in Kelowna and silver medals at the UBC tournament and at TVT. At provincials in Red Deer, the boys finished second in their pool to the eventual provincial champions and then lost a heartbreaking playoff match to finish ninth. Congratulations to all the players and coaches Jordan Abney and Scott Luck for a great year.

This year's junior women's team enjoyed many memorable moments. Although our first round robin games were a little rocky, our team pulled through, qualifying for the Premier Division. Throughout the season, we worked to fulfill personal and team goals and entered playoffs a better team than at the beginning of the season. We blasted through quarter and semi finals, winning both matches. Although we did not win the final game, the season was still a success. Each of us learned lessons that we can use both on and off the court. We shared many laughs and learned to work through the challenges we faced.

The Titan swim team had a very successful year. Our attendance reached a record of 62 swimmers at practice, and 49 swimmers at Cities. Many thanks to coaches Mr. Fung and Andrea Wallace and assistant coach Sean Fournier who did a marvelous job of motivating our swimmers. In Cities, we placed fourth in Tier 2 with outstanding individual performances, especially from our competitive swimmers. There were also numerous firsts for our many novice swimmers in their individual heats. Congratulations go out to all of our swimmers who showed true Titan Spirit in both practices and competitions. Way to go Titans!

TVT Carnival 2006

TVT Carnival was full of energy and excitement. The opening ceremonies showcased exceptional Ainlay talent and started the tournament with a bang. The halls of Ainlay buzzed with enthusiasm and school spirit. The competition in all three weekends of the tournament was fierce. This year, a sr. men's team from Norway competed, winning the consolation final. The sr. men's tournament was won by the Western Canada Redmen and the women's by the Lindsay Thurber Raiders. The Harry Ainlay teams did wonderfully with the sr. men winning silver, sr. women, bronze, jr. men, gold, and jr. women placing 4th. The TVT executive and a number of student, parent and staff volunteers made this tournament amazing. Thank you to everyone for their involvement! -Karla Telidetzki (TVT Student Chair)

Oktoberfest

On September 21, the Ainlay Rotunda was transformed into the Theresienwiese, the traditional location for Oktoberfest! Students enjoyed sausages, pretzels, cake and root-beer while listening to traditional and not-so-traditional music, as well as participating in a number of exciting activities. Mme. Campbell and Herr Hüllstrung performed two jaw-dropping Schuhplattler dances. Later, students were tested in their pretzel-eating and root-beer-drinking abilities (out of a baby bottle no less!) A great example of German Gemütlichkeit!

Halloween

Halloween definitely brought out the creative spirit in Titans this year. Hallways were crowded with devils, witches, fairies, and ... a ninja turtle? Not to mention those giant school supplies to demonstrate the importance of learning! Of course, what could make a better lunch hour than watching those wacky costumed Titans walk the catwalk in the rotunda? No doubt, this Halloween will be hard to forget!

A Touch of Class

Snowflakes, winter and frosted glass
 Were highlights of this year's Touch of Class.
 Tuxedos and tiaras Titans remember –
 Touch of Class was the 21st of December.
 Dressed in their finest, Titans told one and all,
 That it was time for A Winter's Ball.
 Titans were greeted with chocolates and more;
 The rotunda a wonder to explore.
 Piano, violin, singing and more
 Were talents displayed within Ainlay's doors.

Aloha Ainlay

What better event to start off the new year with than Ainlay's very own Aloha Ainlay! On January 11, the school was transformed into a Hawaiian paradise with palm trees, summer music and a Coconut Hut in the middle of the rotunda! The festivities began full blast as students were greeted with leis upon entering the school. All day, students and teachers alike strutted through the hallways showing off their tropical attire. Pina Colada and Strawberry Daiquiri, annual favourites, were served by Student's Union at the Coconut Hut during lunch. It was a sizzling fun day in the sun!

Tri-Prov 2007

This year's Tri- Prov was very successful, thanks to the efforts of the executive committee, teachers, and volunteers involved! The first tournament was the junior tournament in which the Ainlay men won gold, and Western Canada women took the gold. The following weekend, the senior tournament, was an exciting weekend including a fabulous opening ceremony, an amazing slam dunk competition, a fun team social night and two incredible finals. The winners of the women's and men's finals respectively, were the Dr. E.P. Scarlett Lancers, and the Ross Sheppard Thunderbirds. Both Ainlay's men's and women's teams finished silver. All in all the tournaments were a success! Thanks to everyone who came out and supported Tri- Prov 2007!

This year, the senior men's team regained the city championship title back from Ross Shep. The trophy was placed beside the 2005-2006 Provincial Championship trophy for 3 weeks before this year's championships began. The team entered the championships intent to leave the trophy in the showcase. Facing the toughest draw in the tournament, the team battled against four teams ranked top four all year. Going into the semi-final game the team focused on getting to the final for a chance at the provincial crown. The tough draw finally beat the team leaving them with no gas in the tank for the second half of the semi-final after being down three points at the break. The Provincial Championship trophy was moved after a long, hard fought season. This group of bright, hard working young men dedicated themselves to a goal which fell short but not due to a lack of effort. The 2006-2007 Sr. Men's Titan Basketball received the Provincial 4A Sportsmanship Award from the Alberta School Athletics Association. All in all a great season.

With only four grade 12 players on the team, the Titans competed against top teams in the province and were ranked in the top ten the entire season. During their 29 win, 8 loss season, they won gold at the Ross Sheppard Totem Hoop tournament. During Christmas break, they travelled to Vancouver Island where they had a 4 - 0 record against some of the top teams in British Columbia. A third place finish at the Rose tournament in Calgary and a silver at Tri-Prov rounded out tournament results for the season. The Titans finished second in league playoffs and qualified to represent Edmonton in the 4A Provincials. Congratulations on another great year!

This years' wrestlers showed true competitive spirit and Titan sportsmanship. The future looks bright for Ainlay's wrestling team.

Culture Fest

It was time to travel at Harry Ainlay High School. During the week of March 5th to 9th, Ainlay students went around the world in five days as the school celebrated Culture Fest, a week long celebration of cultural diversity. Every lunch hour, students crowded around the rotunda, purchasing cultural food and trying to catch a glimpse of cultural performances. On Thursday over twenty individuals walked the cat walk in cultural garb for the Culture Fest fashion show. Although many people may consider Culture Fest a celebration of the different cultures which make up Harry Ainlay, the festival is really a celebration of Canadian culture. Canada is a land composed of families who have immigrated from across the world; by celebrating these cultures, we celebrate what it means to be Canadian.

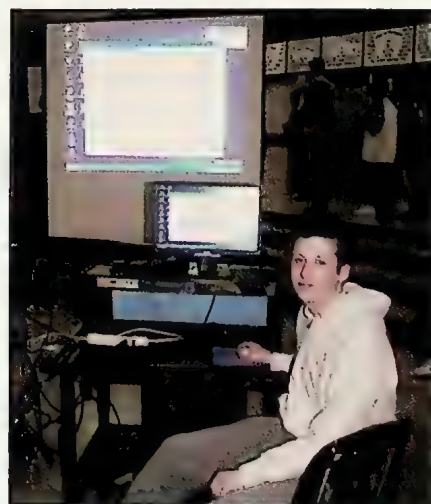

The week of March 12th to 16th was CTS Week! On Monday, students watched videos and slides of Titan events. On Tuesday, Titans participated in a tasty cookie decorating contest. Wednesday featured fashion and cosmetology activities, Thursday a tire changing pit crew contest and Friday a nail driving contest.

Le Gala Français

On April 19, Harry Ainlay hosted Le Gala Français 2007. The evening was attended by approximately 1600 people, including 656 student participants. This event is a local annual public speaking competition and showcase providing an opportunity for students in the various French programs at all grade levels in Edmonton Public Schools to demonstrate and celebrate their talents in French. Ainlay students demonstrated their excellence! Félicitations à tous les participants et à tous les gagnants! Congratulations to all the participants and winners!

Battle of the Bands

Harry Ainlay held its 15th annual Battle of the Bands, a friendly competition for high school bands to show off their talent, and have some fun. Bands in this year's Battle included: Beer Drunk Politics, Even Change, Breathing Black Water, Aviator, Mike Sifeldeen, God Bless Catastrophe, Antoneyl Drive, The Lovers, and Violet Archer. The winner of this year's Battle was Violet Archer consisting of Evan Johnston, Zach Eaton, Adrian Chan and Nick Eaton. These well deserving winners were given a $100 prize. Our runners up Even Change, with Steven Tchir and Evan Johnston received a $50 prize. This was all made possible by the crew at Axe Music who supplied the bands with a stage, lights, microphones, and amps. Congratulations to all the participants and a rocking thanks to Axe music. Hopefully this opportunity will inspire more up-and-comers to audition next year. We wish all the terrific bands great success in the future.

During the two-day competition, students specialize in one event and must complete a project designed by experts in that field. This year's competition held at Northlands Agricom saw 16 Ainlay students competing in events that lasted up to 14 hours over two days. Ryan McGregor won gold in Architectural CADD. This year's competitors were: Jamie Schmitt, Norbert Cabling, Amanda Davidson, David Krywolt, Lauren Hughes, Jade Hudson, Micheal Scammell, Joni Goodkey, Shealyn McIntyre, Neha Bhardwaj, David Lavoie, Joel Adria, Daniel Vekasi, Stephanie Litteral and Jane Jang.

Dodgeball

This year at the Second Annual Harry Ainlay Dodgeball Tournament, students and staff got a taste of some exhilarating dodgeball. For three weeks, hundreds of students and staff packed the gym to capacity for a glimpse of dodgeball action, watching individuals attempt to hurl a ball as fast they can at an opponent while trying to avoid being hit. A total of 37 teams competed in student and teacher pools. In both pools we underdogs came out on top and unbelievable comebacks were achieved. Eventually, only one student team advanced to the dodgeball champions and defeated the top-ranking staff team: We're at Work Right Now: David Berg, Amy Burnham, Erin Cruthers, Scott Czurluck, Ellen Duncan, Connor Fairbanks, Kate Kubiski and Daren Patterson.

Triathlon

This year, five Ainlay athletes competed in the Vegreville Kids of Steel Triathlon on June 9th: Daniel Allen, Andrea Hill, Kevin Lake, Shaun Rudanec and Andrew Smetaniuk. The highlights of the day were Andrea's performance which set a new course record for the women's 16-19 course (in a time of 1:28.49) and Shaun's second place finish for the men's course (in a time of 1:32.42). Congratulations everyone and we hope to see you back next year!

The Sr. Men's Rugby team had a rebuilding year in 2007. Of the 20+ players on the roster, more than three-quarters were grade 10's. Despite this, the boys went out and fought hard in each game and what they lacked in skill they made up for in heart and aggression. In the Tier 2 City Final, they lost a tough game by only one try. I am sure that with many players returning next year, the season will be awesome!!!

Women's Rugby

The Senior Women's rugby team improved dramatically this year. The team went 3-1 for the regular season and made the city semifinals. They also played in the Ross Shep Invitational Tournament and won a key game. Four wins for the season was four more wins than last year; a result of the tremendous effort and dedication of these young women! This year's team included 36 athletes and is one of the largest teams at Harry Ainlay and perhaps the most ferocious!

Frankfurt Exchange

The Frankfurt Exchange is an educational and cultural exchange between students from Germany and Canada. In September, students from Frankfurt, Germany spent three weeks touring Edmonton sites (WEM, etc.) and parts of Alberta (Banff, Drumheller). The German students tasted such Canadian gourmet delights as marshmallows, Cheez Whiz and root beer. Needless to say, the German students were impressed by all that they saw and experienced in Canada. During spring break, Ainlay students crossed the ocean and arrived in Frankfurt. The Canadians were billeted with German families and experienced the life, foods, language and culture of their hosts. Numerous sites were visited in Frankfurt, including their hosts' school – die Helmholtzschule. The second week included a trip to Munich, eating at the renowned Hofbräuhaus, dancing, and countlessly singing "Ein Prosit". Another trip included Dachau and the Deutsches Museum. After two life-changing weeks, many participants have plans to return to Germany. Till then, Auf Wiedersehen and Bis bald to our German friends!

Yamate Exchange

Thirty-three Yamate High School students from Yokohama, Japan visited Ainlay for two weeks in April. They were hosted by Ainlay students and their families. They attended school, visiting a variety of classes and enjoying numerous cultural experiences. Twenty-one Ainlay students will be visiting Yokohama for two weeks in late July. Have a wonderful trip Titans!

IB Europe Trip

The IB Spring Break trip consisted of 30 partial- and full-IB students, chaperoned by the dynamic team of Ms. Fischer, Mr. Lavold, and Mr. Gardner. The group spent 10 days and 12 nights traipsing through Germany, Austria, and France. During our four days in Munich, we visited several historical sites – the Royal Treasury and the Residenz to name a few – and museums like the Deutsches Science Museum and the BMW museum. We went to a traditional Haufbrauhaus for a Bavarian dinner and show (where we ran into Ainlay's German Exchange group). We had a sobering morning visiting the Dachau concentration camp and then continued on to Strasbourg by coach. We had to leave for Paris not long after arriving in Strasbourg, stopping to see the noted Rheims cathedral. We saw the sites in Paris (the Eiffel Tower, the Arc de Triomphe) as well as several museums – the Louvre, Musée d'Orsay and a day trip to the Palace of Versailles where we walked through the famous Hall of Mirrors on our tour. We walked the Champs Elysées, saw Napoleon's tomb, spent an afternoon in the artist's district of Mont-Martre, saw Notre Dame and the incredible Basilica Sacré-Coeur in Paris. It was a high-paced, life altering trip, shared with a wonderful group of people and dynamic chaperones.

Greece Trip

Fifty students and teachers spent 10 days during spring break traveling around Greece and Turkey. We visited the Acropolis, observed the sunset in Mykonos, and marvelled at the ruins of Ephesus. We walked on volcanoes, rode donkeys in Santorini, went to Delphi to uncover the secrets of the oracles, and much more. We gorged on tasty chocolate and other Greek delicacies, danced at Club Maritim (chaperones included), dressed up for Captain's night and posed for numerous group photos. Thanks to all those involved in this amazing journey. All of these memories will have an impact on our lives forever.

Senior Men's Soccer

The Senior Men's Team completed the regular season in 3rd place, after a quarter-final match against Eastglen. In a hard fought match, a 1 – 1 draw was all that 120 minutes of extra time could produce. In a dramatic shoot-out in which each team took 10 shots, the Titans' search for gold was halted. Season highlights include a 5-0 win over Percy Page and a pre-season training camp to Victoria where the team played two matches winning and losing one. With a strong core of returning players the 2008 edition of the team looks to be a strong contender for another outdoor soccer title.

Junior Men's Soccer

The Junior Men's Soccer Team had a successful 2007 season marked by creative and hard-nosed play. We had an impressive combination of youth and experience and, as the year progressed, the boys came together into a truly cohesive unit. These young men showed incredible spirit and sportsmanship and exemplified what it means to be Titans.

After a tough battle with Ross Sheppard, the Titans finished their season and are already looking forward to next year!!

Both are headed to the U of A to continue their track careers. They have both contributed tremendously to the track program at Ainlay for three years and will be a big part of track and field at the U of A. We will miss them. ## Grad President's Speech

This road we have been traveling on for so many years is at its end. It is time to fold away the map that has been our guide and safe passage. It has led us through valleys and over mountains and has guided us back to the main road if we ever took a wrong path. Now is our time to take that mysterious back road which will be a new and unfamiliar experience for all of us. It is time to navigate our own journey. We have trekked countless miles through the hallways at Ainlay over the past three years. With our school maps in hand to help us in the seemingly impossible mission of finding each class, we took our first footsteps into the school. Three years later we long for a new route, one that we can make on our own. We must break out of that comfort zone that Ainlay has provided and begin to create our place in the world. It will be difficult to leave, no longer seeing the same faces smiling at you in the halls, no longer having teachers that truly care about our grades and of course our stress levels. It is those smiling faces, our teachers, and of course, our supportive parents who were our companions through this journey, and have prepared us for this next chapter in our lives. It is exciting to wonder where the next turn will take us. We must follow all of our dreams and ambitions; where will your map lead you? There's an open road ahead Titans, let's step on the pedal and begin our adventures! Congratulations Harry Ainlay Graduating Class of 2007!

Fashion Show

This year's Fashion Show was surely a night to remember. It was a glamorous event full of food, fashion, and fun. The models showed off this year's new fashions as they strutted their stuff down the red carpet. Our musical entertainment which consisted of talent from our very own graduating grade 12 class put on a great show for everyone to enjoy throughout the night. We were lucky enough to have several businesses donate silent auction and door prize items to help raise money for our grad. We want to thank everyone for coming out to support grad 2007. It was a huge success!

Graduation Commencement

On May 25th, students gathered at the Jubilee Auditorium to celebrate a milestone in 738 graduands' lives. The 3½ hour program acknowledged outstanding abilities and qualities demonstrated by members of the 2007 graduating class. The evening held true to its theme "Open Road" with everything from outdoor-themed decorations to the graduation song, Tom Cochrane's "Life is a Highway." The program began with greetings from Graduation President, Jill Young, followed by a message from the School Board. Other speeches included the Principal's message by Mr. Liguori, the Valedictorian's address by Alexander Baer and the guest speakers' speech by Mr. Friesen, a past assistant principal. In between alpha group presentations, the audience was entertained by exceptional performances which included a contemporary vocal work, a rendition of Foo Fighters' "Times Like These," two original pieces highlighting Ainlay students' personal creativity and inspiration, and an intricate hip-hop dance performance and historian routine. All in all, the evening was definitely one to be remembered. Students welcomed the arrival of adulthood and bade farewell to their years of grade school. There were tears of laughter and pride as parents congratulated children, teachers said goodbye to students, and friends embraced friends. Life really is a highway, and the road ahead of us is open; it is what we make of it, and our journey has just begun... Kasmira Pawa and Karla Telidetzki - Commencement Co-chairs

Graduation Banquet

On May 26th, 2007, Harry Ainlay graduands gathered at the Shaw Conference Centre to celebrate Grad 2007. Accompanied by beautiful weather, Titans were looking exceptional themselves. An atmosphere most appropriate for our Titans; black, blue, and white and provided the background for graduation banquet. Hints of silver created a starry atmosphere, much like the view that was experienced on the Shaw Conference Centre's terrace, where many graduands gathered to photograph their friends and families. As the time drew the beginning of the evening's program, all guests were led into the large banquet hall by a carpeted road, appropriate for this year's graduation theme of "Open Road". The banquet hall, large enough to seat the 2113 people was alive with excitement. Banquet is usually graduation's more celebratory evening, filled with buzz and awe, which this evening was nothing short of being extravagant. The program began after the final arrival of guests found their tables. An introduction of the Graduation Executive Head Table lead directly to a warm Toast to the Parents, delivered by Mr. Eric Kaert, followed by a honest and touching response by his mother Mrs. Linda Kaert. The toasting continued with our Students' Union President Ms. Purva Kapur. She presented the Toasted to the Staff on behalf of the graduands and Mr. Ligouri responded with a gift of inspiring and heartfelt wishes. Dinner was to come next, but not until Mr. Nolan Sawatzky provided the Blessing for the evening's meal. Original and passionate, Nolan's blessing was the perfect introduction to the perfect meal. Ending our meal was a sweet Baked Alaska. Making quite a grand entrance, the lights were dimmed as the servers carried trays of desserts, punctured with the sticks of sparklers. That evening's clear, starry night sky was depicted yet again. The special candles, traditionally used in celebration, were most appropriate. Ms. Emma Brook provided entertainment immediately after dinner. Singing Natasha Bedingfield's "Unwritten", Emma's beautiful voice and stunning appearance stole the room's attention. Following the performance was a presentation of the gift to the school and community. Ms. Constance Wong and Ms. Jocelyn Shim, Banquet/ Secretary Treasurer Assistants, presented the gift to Mr. Ligouri. The gift this year is the 'Harry Ainlay Graduate Merit Award'. Acknowledgements were made and a parting wish to the graduation class of 2007 was delivered. Fortunate to those anxiously awaiting the dance, or other further celebrations, the evening's program was concluded. With the closing of banquet came a near ending of graduation. The conclusion of grad, however, revealed the beginnings of what roads graduation leads to. All the best to each graduand and good luck on your next journey.

Principal's Message

Good evening ladies and gentlemen, honoured guests, families and members of Harry Ainlay's graduating class of 2007.

Tonight, we have assembled ourselves to honour and recognize the accomplishments of our graduands; each of whom will soon embark upon one of the most challenging phases of their lives.

Graduands, this next segment of your life is a period in which you will be required to make many decisions concerning your own individuality and the direction in which you choose for your life. The challenges you will face and the decisions you will make are ones that will help form your character, your sense of responsibility and your purpose in life.

As you graduate this year from high school you are taking an initial step toward becoming independent, responsible and hopefully successful adults. As a group, all of you are at different points in this journey, and it is a journey; one with successes and failures, joy and laughter, as well as tears. What is important, though, is that the tenuous, or not so tenuous, steps have already been taken.

In taking these steps toward adulthood, consider the importance of your continued education, whether it be via on the job training, education for personal interest and growth or education at the university or college level. As with all of us, continued education will help you take charge of your life and become the success you are capable of achieving.

As philosopher Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe once said "If I accept you as you are, I will make you worse; however, if I treat you as though you are what you are capable of becoming, I will help you become that." And so it is true.

Over the years, your teachers, coaches, parents and friends have all in some way or another encouraged you to do better and to try harder in regards to your school work, athletics or other responsibilities or obligations you might have. And guess what? You did better and achieved more because of it. Think about it. This knowledge is empowering.

Never settle for the things that you think you can accomplish with relative ease; you are better than that. Push yourself to learn more and to achieve more and you will excel in your endeavours. Approach the next phase of your life with this same philosophy. Consider without limiting yourself where you would like to be five years from now. What type of lifestyle do you want? Do you want to make a positive impact in society? Is there something in your community, our province or country, or the world at large that is of a particular concern to you?

Envision your future without limitation, set goals and realize your future as you deserve. Reach for the things which you know will be challenging, which might require further education, which will require more knowledge and definitely more experience. And, though there will be obstacles along the way, never become discouraged and waiver from achieving the things that are important to you. Remember that you are the only one who can limit your achievements. Demand more of yourself and you will achieve more than you ever imagined.

In his book On Becoming a Leader, Warren G. Bennis states, "taking charge of your own learning is a part of taking charge of your life..."

Again whether you learn a new vocation, become more knowledgeable in an area in which you already have some skill, or whether you choose to continue your formal education at university or college, take charge of your education and you will take charge of your future.

As we depart this evening, I urge you to consider further education seriously. This evening, this year, is not the end of the journey, but merely a milepost on a lifelong journey. Reach for things that challenge you intellectually, physically and emotionally and expect more of yourself than you believe is possible. In doing so, you will realize your full potential.

In addition, I would like to encourage all parents and family members in the audience to continue to encourage your particular graduand to demand more of themselves. I implore you to look for the best in your loved ones and you will help them become all that they are capable of becoming.

Finally, I would like to thank all the teachers and other staff members, parents, siblings and all those significant others in our graduands lives who have challenged them over the years. Through your insistence, you have helped this evening's graduands become smarter, stronger and attain more than they might otherwise.

Congratulations graduands. I am confident as we send you out into the world that we will be proud of your future accomplishments. Good luck and best wishes to each of you.

-Mr. Liguori

Message from the Trustee

Good evening, graduates, parents, staff, friends and special guests. It is my distinct pleasure to bring greetings on behalf of the board of trustees of Edmonton Public Schools to the Harry Ainlay Graduating Class of 2007. Your graduation theme, Open Roads, is extremely fitting for a variety of reasons. Life oftentimes has been described as a highway and during your years in school you have been outfitted with the knowledge, skills and attitudes you will need to embark on a series of journeys that will lead you to destinations that, hopefully, will allow you to fulfill your individual goals.

I can assure you that your parents and teachers wanted to provide you with the tools necessary for you to embark on your journeys.

They have invested time and energy to prepare you for your departure from public school. It is now up to you to choose wisely regarding the routes you take as you enter the next phase of your individual careers. Thomas Mandelbaum, in his book entitled The Ideas That Conquered The World recounts the story about a young girl who is eating dinner at a friend's house and her friend's mother asks her if she likes brussel sprouts.

"Yes, of course," the girl replied, "I like brussel sprouts." Mother then proceeds to give the young lady more sprouts on her plate. After dinner mother notices that the girl hasn't eaten a single sprout. "I thought you liked brussel sprouts," mother said. "I do," answered the girl, "but not enough to actually eat them."

You must define with care and precision which direction you wish to take in order to ensure you determine where you want to go in your life and retain as many options as you can on the journey ... unless you just want more brussel sprouts.

Your parents, your teachers and your friends have attempted to provide you with more than an academic experience during your high school years. School teams, clubs, student leadership opportunities and the fine and practical arts have provided you with more opportunities and have assisted you in developing strong character traits which will be of great value to you as you travel on life's highway. Harry Ainlay, the man for whom your school is named, knew the meaning of following an open road and traveled it with great success. He explored a number of different careers during his travels on his journey through life. He was a carpenter, teacher, assistant principal, principal, alderman, and mayor. In an age when many people would have settled for one career, he wanted to reach a variety of destinations – and he did so with superb results.

A number of you have already been expanding your horizons while in high school, through your involvement in clubs, on sports teams or by lending your time and talents to school events. By doing this, I hope you have made your high school years something more than just assignments and tests.

I trust you will continue to be involved in a variety of recreational and community activities as you pursue your respective journeys.

There is good reason they call these ceremonies 'commencement exercises' ... because graduation is not the end – it is the beginning. The open road for each of you will be different.

Many of you will be seeking more education from the university, college, or technical institute of your choice, others will be seeking more world experiences by visiting other countries, some will do more for the world through volunteer work and some of you will go directly into the world of work, and provide more taxes to our various levels of government.

Although most of us complain about the necessity to pay taxes, we should remind ourselves that taxes are what we pay in order to ensure that we maintain a civil society in our city, our province and in our country.

Whatever road you choose to take, I hope your years at Harry Ainlay have served you well.

Author E. E. Cummings said, "It takes courage to grow up and become who you really are."

You are embarking on a new phase of your life. One which allows you the freedom to explore who you are and who you want to be. I encourage you to seize the opportunities that present themselves to you, walk through doors that open for you and push open the ones that don't.

Explore the open roads that are behind the doors and continue to strive for excellence.

I hope the memories you have of your years at Ainlay have been happy ones and I hope you cherish them for a lifetime. I want to leave you with Mark Twain's admonition to all of us – Always do right! This will surprise some of the people and astonish the rest!

Congratulations on your graduation and enjoy the rest of your evening. Good Luck, Bonne Chance, and God Speed.

-Trustee George Nicholson

Guest Speaker -Mr. Friesen

"Life is a Highway." Interesting image for a graduating class. I need to tell you about the highway that I have been on this last year. I call it the "WOW" highway; I'll tell you why right away. A year ago I was involved with Harry Ainlay students who were getting ready to strike out on adult life the way you are today. These students, like you, were contemplating serious questions of life and (you'll have to excuse the old English teacher in me) reading literature that examined the key questions of one's existence. Quotations such as Shakespeare's "O that this too too sullied flesh would melt, thaw and resolve itself into dew," or "Tomorrow, and tomorrow and tomorrow, Creeps this petty pace from day to day, To the last syllable of recorded time" or the Man of LaMancha's "To dream the impossible dream" were food for thought with these students. Now, I have students who are enthralled with "Lilly's Purple Plastic Purse." This is a great story that uses the word "WOW" numerous times. Early this school year I decided to read this story to my grade ones. I was determined to show that I could connect with these students the same as I could with grade 12's. So I started to read to the class. Whenever I came to the word WOW the whole class would repeat the word after I had said it. WOW, I'm making a connection. One boy was so excited, that he came closer and closer to me. Every time I said WOW his big eyes just bored right into my mouth. I was making a connection! He was getting it.

On my last WOW he was so close that he could almost jump into my mouth. Just as I was congratulating myself on how well I was connecting with this boy, he blurted out, "Hey Mr., you've got cavities." Yes, life is a highway but who knows where it will lead. For me, I made a dental appointment. During grade 12 and particularly graduation season, students are continuously asked to think about their futures. Phrases such as "Your possibilities are endless", "Seize the Moment", "Set high goals for yourself", "Today is the first day of the rest of your life", and so on are raining down on you. All of these you know; they often add a great deal of pressure and the last thing you need from me at this time is more pressure. Therefore, I would like to focus on a different area. During my many years with junior high, high school and elementary students, I have found that students want one thing above all else from their teachers and administrators, and that is, they want someone who truly cares for them. This is the heart of the human condition. We need to be with others who care. That also means, we must care. Further, when we care, we need to be tolerant of other people's short-comings. We need to be able to give others 2nd, 3rd, 4th or more chances to prove themselves. We are all "works in progress". We make mistakes that need to be forgiven. This is the ultimate in caring—the ability to give people around you another chance when they "mess up" or things just go wrong for them. All of you have ambitions. Some of you will figuratively conquer the world. But it all means little without connections and connections come with caring.

Again I need to share an elementary school experience. A friend of mine gave me a book to read to my elementary students. Upon reading it, I was struck by what it said for all humanity. The book (which looks like a grade one book) is called "The Three Questions" and is based on a story by Leo Tolstoy. The story revolves around a young boy who is troubled by life. He wants to know "When is the best time to do things?" "Who is the most important one?" and "What is the right thing to do?" After having gone through many adventures, the boy meets a wise old turtle who shows the boy that he already knows the answers to these questions—(and this is the message for all of us)— "Remember then that there is only one important time, and that time is now. The most important one is always the one you are with. And the most important thing is to do good for the one who is standing at your side. For these, my dear boy, are the answers to what is most important in this world."

The greatest gift you have is the ability to care. Oh yes, the little boy who sent me to the dentist, he gives me a hug every day. Life may be a highway, but it's good to get hugs along the way. I wish you the best for now and your future.

Valedictorian Address

Good evening fellow graduands, parents, staff members and guests. We should be honoured that so many young people have earned the privilege of walking across this stage tonight, and I would like to take this opportunity to offer my congratulations to every member of the graduating class of 2007; you have all worked hard and earned the right to be here.

Graduation is an exciting time in any young person's life. It is often considered to be something of a turning point; after this evening, we will no longer be boys and girls; we will be transfigured into young men and women, ready to face the wide world. Right? Maybe so. But let us not be quite so hasty.

Throughout our lives, we undergo a huge number of transitions. We are born. Then, we learn to speak. Next, we walk. Before we realize where the time has gone, we are setting out on the first day of school, that frightening building where the big kids roam.

Soon we must make the transition to other schools, larger schools, and eventually we arrive at Harry Ainlay, for most of you probably the largest school you have yet attended. I know that when I arrived, a fresh and frightened grade ten student, I knew a total of four people, and it was a very intimidating place indeed. But soon I made a wonderful group of friends and found what a warm and welcoming place Harry Ainlay can actually be. I am sure that many of you have had similar experiences. Now we face another transition; we are leaving school as we know it, that structured, formal place of learning we have known for so long.

So what is next? Do the transitions stop here? No; I am sure you have all set some sort of goal for the future. Some no doubt see themselves destined to be doctors; others, lawyers; perhaps we have some future tradesmen in the audience; and maybe some of you do not know for sure yet, and are not really thinking too far past this weekend – that is fine too. But regardless, from now until the end of your days, even if you become what it is you dream of, you will have obligations and new goals to strive for: families, homes, careers and countless other concerns. So my admonition to you tonight is this: enjoy yourselves along the way. Striving towards goals is important, it gives our lives meaning and purpose, but do not lose sight of what is directly in front of you. Life is short. Do not miss it.

I would like to conclude with a small excerpt from one of my father's teachers, Jeff Cooper, which I consider to be quite inspirational:

To live is to strive.

Nothing good may be had without effort.

The goals of a worthy life are three: to understand, to accomplish and to appreciate.

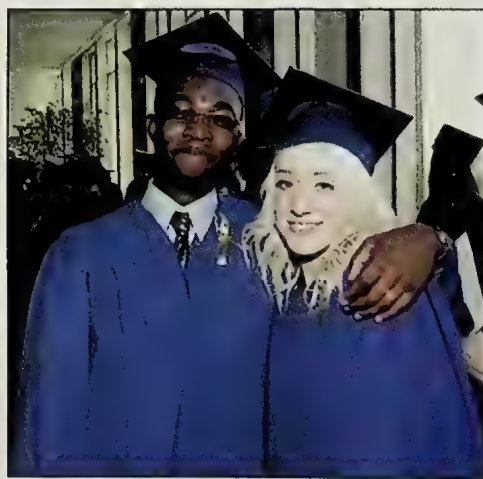

We cannot know, but we can seek knowledge.

We cannot win, but we can fight.

We can, on the other hand, wonder and delight in life, in the world, and in joy.

Our time is not measured in days, but rather in events. Each is his own judge, and no one cares but himself. Therefore, "This above all – to thine own self be true." Thank you very much. I hope the graduands enjoy themselves this weekend – but not too much; I expect to see you all on Monday. Have good lives my friends; I hope you get the most out of them. Goodnight, and I wish you all the best.

-Alexander Baer

Final Thoughts - Mr. K. Wright: Yearbook Advisor

What a great year to be the yearbook advisor. This year with Amy Schwartz as the Senior Editor, Karin Rodning and Andrea Hill as Editors, and thirty other staff members I have had the pleasure of working with the ultimate yearbook "Dream Team." Everyone contributed their own unique talents to the creation of this year's book. The yearbook staff worked through lunch hours, after school, and numerous Friday evenings over the last 10 months to create the pages you are now reading. I am impressed with the dedication and commitment of the Titan Tradition Yearbook staff. As the last page is being sent to the printer, the sun is shining, the wind is blowing and I am going backpacking in Jasper. Bon Voyage

Editors' Notes

Amy Schwartz - Senior Editor

Wow! These past three years have been quite the trip. I've had such a great time working on the yearbook with this years' staff. Together, Mr. Wright, Andrea, Karin, the rest of the yearbook crew and myself have managed to pull it all together as the last few days of school draw to a close. We've had such a great time together; an experience I'll never forget. It has been an honour taking on the leading role as Sr. Editor and I hope that this book will be enjoyed in years to come. :D

Karin Rodning - Editor

I have really enjoyed working on the yearbook for the past three years. It has been a great experience designing pages in full colour. I've had so many great times with Andrea, Amy and the staff this year as we finally strung all the pieces together to bring you this amazing book! My time at Ainlay has been such a great experience.

Andrea Hill - Editor

Working on yearbook these past two years has been a phenomenal experience for me. I would like to thank Amy and Karin for making my job so much fun. From our Friday night yearbook work days, our study groups and our Boggle games (which I always won) we've been through a lot together. I'll miss you Amy, with your common sense, and you Karin, with your erratic and often physics-related comments. Yearbook won't be the same without you. All the best in university.
